All the King’s Men traces the rise and fall of demagogue Willie Stark, a fictional character loosely based on Governor Huey “Kingfish” Long of Louisiana. Stark begins his political career as an idealistic man of the people but soon becomes corrupted by success and caught between dreams of service and an insatiable lust for power, culminating in a novel that Sinclair Lewis pronounced, on the book’s releasing in 1946, “one of our few national galleries of character.”

Attendees are required to purchase and read this book before the class.

Facilitator: Anne Uecker WCPC/MMC, Clerk/Treasurer, City of St. Francis

(LIMITED TO 30 PARTICIPANTS – SIGN UP NOW!)

First Name_____________________________ Last Name__________________________________ Title_______________________________

Municipality________________________________________________________________________________________________

Mailing Address______________________________________________________________________________________________

City_____________________________________________________________________	State__________	Zip_________________

Work Phone__________________________ Work E-Mail________________________________________________________

Cost: $70 - which includes breaks and lunch. $80 after July 17th. Registration closes August 7th.

CANCELLATION POLICY: A full refund, minus a $10 processing charge, is given when cancelling on or before August 12, 2015.

Send payment and form to: WMCA, 1414 Montclair Place, Fort Atkinson, WI 53538

If paying by credit card, fill out the following:

☐ Visa Card Number ___________ ___________ ___________ ___________ ___________ ___________ ___________

☐ Mastercard Security Code ___________ Expires (MM/YYYY) ___________ / ___________

☐ Discover

☐ American Express Print Cardholder’s Name:________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

Signature Date

PLEASE NOTE: This Dialogue has been pre-approved for 3 CMC and 3 MMC and 1.5 WCMC Education points. A practicum will need to be completed by those attendees seeking IIMC credit.